

CLERK OF COURT RESIGNS HIS PLACE

Thomas H. Hayward Retires and His Deputy Appointed.

THE COON RIVER TRUCKERS

Storms Along the Rappahannock and Much Damage Done—The Corporation Court of Fredericksburg Closes for the Summer.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 21.— Mr. Thomas H. Hayward has resigned as clerk of courts of Rappahannock county, and his deputy, Mr. W. C. Armstrong, has been appointed by Judge Dudley to fill the vacancy. Mr. Hayward expects to move his place of residence to another county.

The injunction case of Mrs. Lella Moore Newman, vs. W. G. Newman, in Orange county, has been continued by Circuit Judge, D. A. Grimsley and Messrs. G. R.
Browning and G. R. Coleman were appointed receivers, and now have charge of the property.

News has been received here of the sudden death of Mrs. J. E. Mason, of Mathews county, wife of Captain Joseph Trader, Deputy Internal Revenue Collector for this district. The cause of the death was paralysis.

The section along the Coan River, in the Northern Neck is becoming valuable for trucking purposes, and the shipments by steamers to the city markets from that short river, are said to amount to from $5,000 to $10,000 per week. Trucks to the value of $25,000 were recently shipped from one wharf to Baltimore in one day.

The Corporation Court of this city has closed for the summer vacation, and will not reopen to the second Thursday in September. Judge A. W. Wallace has held this court open more days within the past year than for any similar prior for the past twenty years. Judge Wallace will spend a large portion of his vacation at the seashore in New Jersey.

Storms have been frequent in this section recently, resulting in much damage.
Stock has been killed by lightning, big old trees which for years have served as landmarks, have been blown down, stacks of hay scattered, fields of corn blown down, and in some portions of Stafford and King George the crops were injured by hail. A new house belonging to Mr. Lyman Brant, near completed, in Stafford county, was moved from its foundation, and the frame work so twisted that it will have to be rebuilt.

Mr. H. C. Eddins has sold his fine farm "Goshen," in Orange county, containing 173 acres, for $35,000, to Mr. W. L.
Leving.

Mr. R. P. Simms a leading tobacco planter of Louisa county, recently obtained the high price of $31 per hundred pounds for a portion of his tobacco crop sold in Richmond, and Mr. C. C. Beazley, of Caroline county, obtained the same price for a part of his crop in the same market.

Among recent deaths in Orange county, was that of Mr. George W. Coleman, at the home of his nephew, Mr. G. W.
Davis, aged 85 years. He was an excellent man and will be greatly missed.
The Stafford county, was moved from water-lanes are now ripening, and are being brought to this city daily. There are none superior, as the Stafford soil is well adapted to raising this fruit. It also excels the cantaloupes which are now coming in in large quantities.
Judge J. E. Mason, who was last week renominated by the Democratic caucus of the Legislature for re-election as judge of this circuit, has been quite sick at his home, "Shelburne," in King George county, but is now convalescing.

SHOCKED BY LIGHTNING

Barn in Which Several People Took Shelter Burned—Other Fires.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) COVINGTON, VA., July 21.—A barn in which Mr. and Mrs. Jolly Dickson, Mr.
J. J. Mason, and two nieces, took shelter from a storm Sunday evening, was struck by lightning. Mrs. Dickson was the only person affected by the bolt, and she was painfully though not dangerously shocked.
The barn, the property of A. McAllister, was totally destroyed, together with a quantity of wheat and hay. Loss to buildings and crop about $800.

Three hours later, just as the various remembrances were returning from preaching, the fire alarm was again sounded. The fire company was on the scene in one minute, but the flames, caused by the explosion of an oil stove, had been controlled. The fire originated in the kitchen of Mr. George W. Hardy, on the main street of the town, and the damage was trivial.

Thursday night at 10:30 the fire company was called out to put out a fire in a stable belonging to Mr. Charles S. Sher-berd. The fire was confined to the stable, although it was but a few feet from other buildings.

is slowly convalescing at Dr. Ruffin's private hospital.

YOUNG NEWHOUSE HEARD FROM AGAIN

Writes to Friend in Culpeper on a Cape Colony Postal Card.
He is Well.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
CULPEPER, VA., July 21.—Though all doubt surrounding the existence and whereabouts of Mr. Charles H. Newhouse has lately been removed, the clouds have not cleared as to this most curious case. This afternoon the following, written on a foreign or Cape Colony postal card, was taken from the Culpeper postoffice:

"Cape Town, South Africa, June 17, 1902.
"Mr. Reuben Howard, Culpeper, U. S. A.
"Dear Reub,—You will be surprised to know that I am well and in the land of the living. I have struck it hard, but am getting on better and will be back soon and settle things up.

"Your friend,
"CHARLES."

It will be noticed that the circumstances as to his actual disappearance are still involved in clouds of mystery.

The following is a copy of the letter that was written to his father, Colonel S. M. Newhouse, by Charles H. Newhouse, who disappeared in Baltimore the 24th of last December:

"Cape Town, June 15, 1902.
"Dearest Papa,—I am alive and all right. I have had misfortune, since I saw you all last, but am recovering now.
Will be home shortly with a fortune, when I hope to be a comfort to dearest mamma and yourself in your old age.
My heart often has bled for each one of my dear home folks. Circumstances surrounding my disappearance may to some look dishonorable, but when explained will merit their forgiveness. No one but myself knows all the facts, and no other can explain and the explanation, when given, will be satisfactory. I am in an isolated part of the globe, but think fortune will yet smile upon us.
With all the love possible for each of you, I am,
"Your loving son, "CHARLES."

WRETCHED VANDALS DO SOME UGLY WORK

A Fine Piano Torn to Pieces in the State Female Normal School.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) FARMVILLE, VA., July 21.—It has just been made known by the school officials that some unknown parties entered this State Female Normal School last Thursday night and literally tore a $600 piano to pieces, went into the parlor of the institution and cut all of the covering off of the valuable furniture, and left the premises without any one seeing them, so far as known.

The affair was withheld from the public until to-day in order to give the officers a better chance to work up some clues as to who in large quantities.
Arrests will probably follow. Commonwealth's Attorney A. D. Watkins, will investigate the case closely, and will leave no stone unturned to bring the guilty parties to justice. The furniture was put on exhibition in front of the establishment of W. T. Doves, in order that the public might see what had been done.

THE TOBACCO ASSOCIATION

Annual Meeting to Be Held This Week at Old Point.

The first annual meeting of the Tobacco Association of the United States, which was organized in this city a year ago, will be held this week in Old Point, beginning on Thursday and ending Saturday.

Not a little interest is felt in the forthcoming meeting, since at it will be decided whether or not the association has taken sufficient hold upon the tobacco world to continue its existence.
Its first year will be reviewed and by it will be judged whether the organization is carrying out its objects and whether it can hold together longer.
Upon this will hinge other matters which will be taken up if everything progresses smoothly.

The attendance upon the meeting promises at this time to be very good.
Quite a number are expected to go from Richmond. The Western cities, it is said, will send big delegations. The Southern markets will be equally well represented. No set programme for the meeting has been arranged. There will probably be one business session day with the usual addresses on different subjects to the trade. Great attention will be given to the social feature of the gathering. There will be street-car rides, boat rides and visits to points of interest.

FELL FROM BUGGY AND BROKE HIS NECK

Sudden Death of an Indian While on Way to Brother's Funeral.

ANOTHER DIPHTHERIA CASE

The Family Isolated and Quarantined, and Anti-toxine Used—A Bride Comes from Norway to Wed Her Lover.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) WILLIAMSBURG, VA., July 21.—An Indian, a son of a former chief of the Pamunkey tribe, fell from his buggy near Barboursville early Friday night and was instantly killed. The accident happened in James City county, and Justice R. B.
Gatewood, of Toano, held an inquest Saturday. Dr. John D. Turner, who acted as coroner, found that the man's neck was broken. In his pockets were found a small sum of money and two whiskey bottles. One was empty.

Wynne conducted a blacksmith shop at Ewell, near here, and was an expert mechanic. A few years ago he married a white woman. When he was killed he was on his way to New Kent county to attend the funeral of his brother.

DIPHTHERIA AGAIN.
Another case of diphtheria has broken out in the family of the colored people who lost a son by the disease last Saturday. The patient is a small girl. She is not yet very ill, and, as she has been given the anti-toxine treatment, the doctors hope for her recovery.

Yesterday all the other inmates of the house were taken out of town and placed under guard in an isolated house. All of the children exposed were given the anti-toxine treatment. There are no other cases in town.

FROM NORWAY TO WED.

Yesterday morning Charles F. Ingelslev and Malina Swensen were married by Rev. H. T. Louthan at the residence of Mr. Charles Scott. The bride arrived here Saturday night from Norway, having come to wed the sweetheart of her childhood. Ingelslev came to this country some time ago and served three years in the regular army. After his term of service expired he wrote for his bride to come to America. He can speak English, but his bride had to have an interpreter.
